

RYEDALE BUILDING CONSERVATION AND HERITAGE FAIR MALTON

28th June 2008

10am-5.00pm at The Milton Rooms and York House

supplementary cpd events in York House only on 27th June

ADMISSION FREE

DEMONSTRATIONS OF:

Traditional Building Skills
and Methods

Including Work in:
Wood, Stone, Brick
Lime Mortar,
Earth Mortar
Lead, Iron

INFORMATION & TALKS ON:

Stone Conservation and Repair
Timber Repair
Lime and Earth Plasters
Decorative Plasterwork
Building Conservation Theory and Practice
Garden and Landscape Heritage

Exhibitions by suppliers of services and materials, conservation professionals, national and regional amenity societies.

Guided tours of York House and Castle Gardens, Town wall and Riverside walks, in association with GARLAND and The Derwent Riverside Project.

Architectural I-Spy, free entry to Malton Museum.

For more information contact:
emma.woodland@ryedale.gov.uk

Ray Wilson c/o www.spab.org.uk or nigelcopsey@hotmail.com

"Cultural value is a non-renewable resource"